I had a dream last night that I went to the Indiana State Fair and visited the 4-H Exhibit with _____ (person). I was wearing _____ (adjective) green polka dot pants and we took Hank the _____ (animal) with us. First we watched kids our own age show off their animals. It was _____ (adjective)! One girl had a _____ (farm animal), and it was _____ (adjective)! Then, we _____ (verb-past tense) to see the baked goods entered into the food contest by more kids our own age. The _____ (food) was _____ (adjective)! Next we _____ (adverb) walked over to look at some clothes made by 4-H kids. This was _____ (adjective). To wrap up our visit, we learned that the 4 H's stand for head, heart, hands and health. Everything we saw at the exhibit involved all of the H's, which is _____ (adjective)! The _____ (noun) was the best part. When I woke up in _____ (place), I was confused and _____ (adjective) that I wasn't at the Indiana State Fair!
